CURRENT INTELLIGENCE WEEKLY SUMMARY

President Kennedy's Visit to Mexico

Soviet propaganda gave only moderate attention to President Kennedy's trip to Mexico, emphasizing that the country's traditional policy of "nonintervention" in the internal affairs of other states obviously displeased the US. Moscow attempted to brand the trip a failure because of the Mexican Government's refusal to endorse US policy toward Cuba. TASS alleged that Mexico refused to join the US in preparing for a new invasion of Cuba under the "flag of collective action" of Latin American countries.
